

Taylor Mundt is a rising star in the equestrian world, whose journey with Legacy Performance Training has shaped her into a formidable competitor. With years of dedication and hard work, Taylor has not only expanded her knowledge but has also honed her abilities to actively represent Team Canada for the Juniors.

For Taylor, being selected for the national team for the second consecutive season is a testament to her perseverance and passion for the sport. Grateful for the doors it has opened and the connections it has fostered, Taylor cherishes every moment spent alongside fellow riders, coaches, and mentors. As she prepares for her second season with Team Canada after an exceptional placing in 2022 in Holland, Taylor reflects on her growth and progress since joining the team. She acknowledges the strides made, recognizing the areas of strength and areas for improvement revealed during past competitions.

Armed with a deeper understanding of her capabilities and areas for development, Taylor approaches the upcoming season with confidence and determination. Her commitment to continuous improvement drives her to push the boundaries of her potential, striving for excellence with each ride and representing the Canadian Warmblood Studbook with her absolute best.

As Taylor Mundt embarks on her next chapter with Team Canada, she is fueled by a passion for the sport and a desire to reach new heights. With a supportive team behind her, Taylor eagerly anticipates the challenges and triumphs that lie ahead, knowing that her journey with Legacy Performance Training has prepared her for whatever the future may hold.

